Art Palm Beach 2025: Building on the Success of 2024

Following the 2024 edition of Art Palm Beach, producer and director Kassandra Voyagis and her team are already planning for the 2025 show. The goal is to include an even wider range of galleries from around the world. Art Palm Beach will return to the Palm Beach County Convention Center from January 22-26, 2025.

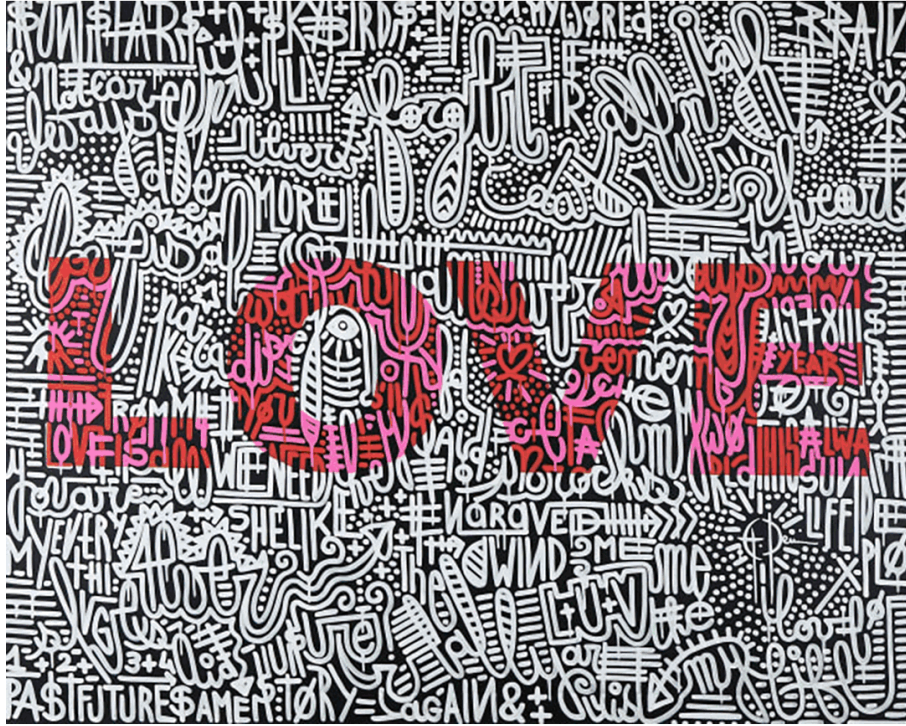

This month, we highlight three galleries that participated in the February 2024 edition, and who will be returning to Art Palm Beach in 2025: Modern Fine Art (New York), Eckert Fine Art (Connecticut), and Adamar Fine Arts (Miami).

As Art Palm Beach 2025 approaches, the organizers look forward to continued collaboration with these galleries and to welcoming new exhibitors from around the globe. The event aims to provide a platform for artists, galleries, and collectors to connect and celebrate the best in contemporary and modern art in the vibrant art scene of Palm Beach.

Gallery Highlights

Modern Fine Art

Showcasing 20th and 21st Century Art

Established in 2023 by Ray Waterhouse, a renowned specialist in Impressionist, Modern, Post-War, and Contemporary art, Modern Fine Art is a new art dealership with a gallery on the Upper East Side in New York City and an office in London. The gallery reflects Waterhouse's 36 years of experience as the majority owner of the London gallery Waterhouse & Dodd.

The gallery features a curated selection of works by both established and emerging artists, offering a comprehensive view of the art world's evolution over the past century. The gallery's roster includes Modern and Post-War artists like Henri Matisse, Joan Miró, Henry Moore, and Pablo Picasso, as well as Contemporary artists such as Anselm Kiefer, Sol Lewitt, Kim Keever and Edward Povey.

Through exhibitions, events, and collaborations, Modern Fine Art aims to promote and celebrate 20th and 21st century art, becoming a leading destination for art lovers and collectors in New York City and beyond. The gallery is dedicated to providing a platform for artists and fostering a deeper appreciation for modern and contemporary art.

Eckert Fine Art

Connecting 19th and 20th Century American Art with Contemporary Masters

Founded by Jane Coats Eckert in 1996, Eckert Fine Art is a gallery with deep roots in 19th and 20th century American art. Eckert's expertise and passion for this period, cultivated through her early years writing and lecturing in the Midwest, has been the driving force behind the gallery's success.

Eckert Fine Art's new location on the campus of MASS MoCA showcases works by renowned Post-War and Contemporary artists such as Robert Rauschenberg, Christo, John Chamberlain, Julian Stanczyk, Robert Indiana, James Rosenquist, Sol LeWitt, James Turrell, Don Gummer, Hunt Slonem, Chizuru Morii Kaplan, and Robert Cottingham. The gallery is also the exclusive representative of Realist painter Eric Forstmann.

Throughout its history, Eckert Fine Art has placed significant works by Roy Lichtenstein, Henry Moore, Giorgio de Chirico, Niki de Saint Phalle, Jean-Michel Basquiat, Pierre-Auguste Renoir, Thomas Hart Benton, and George Bellows in prestigious museums and private collections worldwide, solidifying its position as a leading authority in the art world.

Adamar Fine Arts

A Miami Institution Showcasing Contemporary Masters and Emerging Talent

With 37 years in the art world, Adamar Fine Arts is a well-established gallery representing Contemporary Masters and mid-career local and international artists. The gallery features a diverse collection of paintings, prints, sculpture, installations, and works on paper.

For over 29 years, Adamar Fine Arts located in the trendy Miami Design District, has played a vital role in the area's transformation into Miami's premier art center. The gallery's roster includes works by Alex Katz, Andy Warhol, Roy Lichtenstein, Damien Hirst, Ai Wei Wei, Keith Haring, Robert Longo, Julian Opie, and Helen Frankenthaler, among others.

A notable sale at Art Palm Beach 2024 for the gallery was an Alex Katz piece, sold to Bobbi Brown, which was recently featured on the cover of Palm Beach Magazine.
