Art Palm Beach 2025 Welcomes Galleries from London, Belgium and Tel Aviv

Art Palm Beach's international reach continues to expand for its January 2025 edition. Set for January 22-26 at the Palm Beach County Convention Center, the show brings together distinct artistic perspectives from across the globe. Producer Kassandra Voyagis has curated a selection of galleries that demonstrates the breadth of contemporary and modern art.

This month's newsletter highlights three galleries that embody this international spirit: Pontone Gallery, bridging London's West End with New York's Tribeca; L.E. Gallery, operating between Belgium and London; and Corridor Contemporary, connecting Tel Aviv with Philadelphia. Each brings a unique curatorial vision and an impressive roster of artists to Palm Beach.

Continue reading to learn about these galleries and their carefully curated selections for Art Palm Beach 2025.

Gallery Highlights

Pontone Gallery, London

Pontone Gallery, established in 2016, is located in the heart of London's West End, surrounded by the vibrant neighborhoods of Soho, Fitzrovia, and Mayfair.

The gallery specializes in visually stimulating and intellectually rigorous work, with expertise spanning from hyperrealism to gestural abstraction. In 2022, the gallery expanded its presence to New York's Tribeca district with Friedrichs Pontone, a partnership that brings 40 years of combined experience to their programming.

For Art Palm Beach 2025, Pontone Gallery will showcase the work of Chris Rivers, a self-taught artist from Manchester, England. Rivers, who began his artistic journey in 2014, is known for his large and dramatic oil paintings that combine bold, abstract displays of charged color with fine, surrealistic detail. His recent work explores elements and zodiac signs, as exemplified in his mesmerizing piece "Virgo," which features innovative techniques including the use of metal leaf to create celestial landscapes.

L.E. Gallery, Belgium and London

Based in Belgium and London, L.E. Gallery specializes in modern and contemporary art in limited editions, with private showrooms in Keerbergen and London's Rotherhithe district. Their expertise spans multiple artistic movements, including Pop Art, Op Art, Kinetic Art, Minimalism, and Conceptual Art. The gallery's diverse collection encompasses various media, from prints and multiples to ceramics, with each piece thoroughly researched and authenticated.

For Art Palm Beach 2025, L.E. Gallery will present an impressive selection of works by renowned masters including Alexander Archipenko, Alexander Calder, Sonia Delaunay, Sam Francis, Roy Lichtenstein, René Magritte, Joan Miró, and Pablo Picasso.

Corridor Contemporary, Tel Aviv & Philadelphia

Corridor Contemporary stands as a nexus for new art in Tel Aviv, with a sister gallery in Philadelphia. Founded by Erez Zemach, the gallery showcases contemporary art from around the world across diverse mediums including painting, sculpture, photography, and video art.

The gallery's collection represents key movements in contemporary art, from figurative art and photorealism to graffiti and street art. Through their exhibition program, they introduce local collectors to international art while presenting Israeli artists to global audiences. Zemach brings extensive knowledge and a personal perspective to the gallery's curation, fostering strong relationships with collectors that led to the establishment of their Philadelphia location.

For Art Palm Beach 2025, Corridor Contemporary will present works by an impressive roster of artists including Mel Bochner, George Condo, Damien Hirst, Taher Jaoui, Alex Katz, Peter Halley, Takashi Murakami, and Tom Wesselmann.
