Creativity is on full display at this year's Art Palm Beach. Taking place from Jan. 24-28, this event includes plenty of unique artworks in an intimate space within the Palm Beach Convention Center. More than 80 galleries are included, featuring local and international artists, many of whom have never shown in the area. There also are well-known artists represented, such as Marc Chagall, Andy Warhol and Jackson Pollock, as well as a featured exhibition from Prince Nikolaos of Greece and Denmark presented by the Ethan Cohen Gallery of New York.

The 2024 edition of the event encourages visitors to look at the relationship between memory, humanity and AI. DIVERSEartPB is curated by Marisa Caichloli, DIVERSEartLA Curator.

"AI's influence touches every aspect of our lives, whether we realize it or not. Just a few years ago, it seemed like science fiction, yet now it's deeply embedded in how we process information, interact with the world, and even how we remember the past and envision the future. While AI enhances our ability to store and recall information, it can also lead to a dangerous reliance on digital devices over natural memory. AI algorithms in social media and search engines, for instance, subtly shape our recollections by reinforcing certain viewpoints. Similarly, augmented and virtual reality create immersive experiences that blend and reshape our real-life memories. That is just a glimpse of how AI is not just a tool, but a deeply integrated collaborator in the human experience, impacting in a big way how we think, remember, and exist," said Cassandra Voyagis, producer / director of the Art Palm Beach and its sister fair, the LA Art Show.

DIVERSEartPB brings these ideas to life through various exhibits. Voyagis explained, "Projects like MUSEUM AI grapple with the intersection of AI and history by using AI to recreate lost artworks. This raises crucial questions: Can an AI-recreated artwork ever truly be considered genuine? And can AI become a powerful tool for remembering and protecting lost cultures. Mythstories examines how storytelling, a foundational aspect of human memory, evolves in the age of AI. And the immersive installation, Be Water showcases the powerful synergy between humanity and AI in tackling global challenges. It emphasizes the shared memory of nature and humanity, and explores how AI can play a crucial role in understanding and addressing the world's greatest challenges."

ART PALM BEACH'S NEW POWERHOUSE PRODUCER AND DIRECTOR WILL BRING INTERNATIONAL PANACHE AND A DISCERNING EYE TO THIS YEAR'S EVENT

BY JUDY ALEXANDRA DIEDWARDO

In 2022, Scott Diamant and Rob Samuels of the Palm Beach Show Group acquired Art Palm Beach and tapped Kassandra Voyagis to serve as producer and director. The contemporary art fair will return to the Palm Beach County Convention Center January 24-28 with what Voyagis describes as a dynamic and diverse gathering of leading creatives and galleries. "I was thrilled and honored when asked to re-vision this event, which I immediately knew would showcase a more diverse, global group of artists and galleries," she says. "This year we'll have art from Denmark, Germany, and Korea, among others, that has never been shown in Palm Beach before." Voyagis recently sat down with PBI to discuss the 2024 fair, her background, and what's trending now in the contemporary art world. (arpbipalmbeach.com)

PBI: How has your background informed your vision for this year's Art Palm Beach event?

Voyagis: I have been immersed in art and the classics since childhood, and I travel the world extensively. I was born in Rome, grew up in Italy, and spent most of my life in Europe before coming to the United States about 20 years ago. I also come from an actors vs. entertainment background. I grew up with paparazzi chasing us on the streets and had an acting career as well. So, my vision was to not only bring more international galleries but to create an experience for attendees.

What will surprise repeat attendees in 2024?

Art must be experienced, not just seen. I want this year's fair to be as unique as the art, versus feeling as though you're at a trade show. Convention centers can be pretty sterile, so we reconfigured the space with wider aisles, higher walls, and softer lighting to create maximum effect.

Will there be something for everyone?

Absolutely, especially for those who are new to the art world. The seasoned collectors, of course, will come out by the thousands. But we've created an approachable experience and educational platform to inspire non-collectors to become collectors.

Art Palm Beach returns with more galleries, new exhibitions

"The goal is to have five beautiful days where people can come and really enjoy artwork, with mixed media, contemporary, modern ... and all the big masters, but also contemporary work that maybe is not as known," she said. "So collectors can buy and then maybe we can create new collectors, or just come and enjoy the educational component."

Beachfront Fair

NOW IN ITS second year, Art Palm Beach returns to the Palm Beach County Convention Center January 24th to 28th, 2024. Organizers have curated an impressive roster of over 80 international galleries, from well-known stalwarts to those focused on emerging talent. New this year, the fair will see a charity partnership with the American Heart Association and will feature special events dedicated to the impact of AI (artificial intelligence) on humanity and the art world.

Represented by Danish Gallery Christoffer Egelund, Niels Strøbek's realist figure studies explore the mysteries of the feminine. Bath-sheba (2023) counters a pattern-filled, warm interior with the icy countenances of his models. Also in the figural realm, London's Quantum Contemporary Art includes Bridget Davies' ink drawings on gold leaf. The Arrival-Dawn and Dusk

IN PERSPECTIVE

Galleri Urbane (Dallas, Tx) brings sculptures from Jessica Drenk, who transforms paper into something unexpected. Wall-piece Aggregate Stone 2 (2023) evokes geologic time and stratigraphy but stresses the role of the artist in its manufacture. Comprised of densely-layered pieces of junk mail, she comments on the tedium of our present age.

Rare Marc Chagall work for purchase after artist enjoys surge in popularity

NEWS PROVIDED BY EIN Presswire

Unprecedented demand and heightened interest in Marc Chagall's works

PALM BEACH, FL, UNITED STATES , November 28, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- First, New York City dedicates a larger than life immersive exhibit to Painter Marc Chagall's works of art, taking over walls, ceilings and even the floor! Then, just weeks later thieves make off with one of his $100,000 lithographs and are still on the run. Just days ago, an early Chagall fetched $15.6 million at auction. There is no doubt that for whatever reason, Marc Chagall and his works are top of mind.

“Chagall's works are highly sought after and seldom available on the market, making this an exceptional chance to acquire a piece of art history”
— Kassandra Voyagis Art Palm Beach's show director and producer

On the heels of all this attention is Art Palm Beach. In its second year, the show is set to showcase one of Chagall's most extraordinary masterpieces. Taking place from January 24th to 28th at the Palm Beach Convention Center the show will feature galleries and artists from all over the world. But undoubtedly one of the pieces that will attract considerable attention this year is Chagall's 1956 Esquisse pour le Grand Cirque, which will be on display carefully curated and framed by Modern Fine Art Gallery. This artwork is extremely rare, from a good period in Chagall's oeuvre due to the fact that most works on the market are late works.

Modern Fine Art Gallery's inclusion of Marc Chagall masterpiece adds an unparalleled level of cultural significance to Art Palm Beach

Η eco φιλοξενία στην «καλύβα του αγρότη» και τα τέσσερα διαμερίσματα που θα αναστατώσουν τη Νέα Υόρκη

Η eco φιλοξενία ολοένα και περισσότερο κερδίζει έδαφος σε όλα τα μήκη και τα πλάτη της γης. Αυτό φαίνεται να γνωρίζουν πολύ καλά οι ιδιοκτήτες του Gstaad Palace, Ανδρέας Scherz και η σύζυγος του Λάουρα Αντωνιάδη Scherz, που εκτός από οικοδεσπότες στο πολυτελές ξενοδοχείο, προσφέρουν και μια διαφορετική φιλοξενία, πιο οικολογική, αλλά πάντα με ανέσεις. Και για να μην μακρηγορώ, θα μπω απευθείας στο θέμα. Το ζευγάρι, όπως έχει γίνει γνωστό, έχει στην κατοχή του μια καλύβα, πάνω από το Gstaad στην Ελβετία, την επονομαζόμενη Wallig που μεταφράζεται ως η «καλύβα του αγρότη». Σε αυτή λοιπόν φιλοξενούν καλεσμένους που θέλουν να απολαύσουν την eco φιλοξενία, χωρίς όμως να τους λείψουν και οι ανέσεις. Οι επισκέπτες της Wallig αφού οδηγήσουν είκοσι λεπτά πάνω από το Gstaad θα αντικρίσουν ένα παραδοσιακό κατάλυμα . Το τουνοδάμιο του δεν έχει ρεύμα, αλλά είναι ζεστό και μπορεί κανείς να ζητήσει από τον ήχο της καμπάνας της εκκλησίας του Gstaad! Το king size κρεβάτι είναι καλυμμένο με γούνινα δέρματα, ενώ στις υπηρεσίες του Wallig Hut μπορεί κανείς να απολαύσει τις υπηρεσίες που προσφέρονται σε ένα από τα δωμάτια του Gstaad palace: Από προσωπικό σερβιέρου μέχρι μπάτλερ που φορούν πουκάμισα με κεντημένο πάνω τους ένα εντελώς. Όσο για την κουζίνα του Wallig Hut, απλά εντυπωσιάζει και περιλαμβάνει από φιλέτο μοσχαρίσιου κρέατος ψημένο στο ξυλόφουρνο, με λαχανικά, μέχρι τυρόπιτα με ροπήγερμα, ρολά tulle και baby μαρέγκες με καταπληκτική φρέσκια κρέμα. Η eco φιλοξενία στον υπέριπτο βαθμό!
