Art Palm Beach Returns With 80+ International Galleries & Special Exhibitions

Art Palm Beach opens the 2025 art fair calendar at the Palm Beach County Convention Center, January 22-26, presenting over 80 international galleries alongside curated exhibitions that reflect current dialogues in contemporary art. The five-day event begins with an opening night premiere party on Wednesday, January 22.

This year's Featured Exhibitions present four significant bodies of work. Modern Fine Art debuts Mark Eisen's final series of mirror-polished stainless steel wall sculptures, previously unseen by the public. Hollis Taggart brings together Abstract Expressionists Norman Carton and Albert Kotin, examining their parallel journeys as immigrants who shaped the New York School. Pontone Gallery presents Korean sculptors Hwang Seontae and Choi Soowhan, who approach lightbox sculpture from contrasting perspectives, exploring architectural space and natural landscape. Rosenbaum Contemporary showcases Maikel Martinez's "Dream Worlds," bringing new dimensions to contemporary painting.

Under the curatorial direction of Marisa Caichiolo, this year's DIVERSEartPB platform brings together four innovative projects for 2025 and presents its annual Museum Acquisition Award, furthering its commitment to institutional collecting. The Boca Raton Museum of Art presents a preview of Glasstress, where Nathalie Djurberg and Hans Berg merge stop-motion animation with Murano glass sculptures. MOCOA Museum brings their ceramic plates collection to Palm Beach, showcasing works by over 100 artists from across the Americas. From Slovakia's Danubiana Museum comes Viktor Freso's monumental 30-foot Bear sculpture. ReflectSpace Gallery and Culture Nomad present HanHo's immersive installation "Eternal Light—21C The Last Judgment," which explores humanity's relationship with climate crisis and survival.

The fair strengthens its community ties through key partnerships. We join the Boca Raton Museum of Art in celebrating their 75th Anniversary, featuring previews of their upcoming exhibitions including Glasstress Boca Raton 2025 and "Splendor and Passion: Baroque Spain and Its Empire." We also welcome our Sponsors Palm Beach Illustrated, providing dedicated fair coverage, and Athletes for Life, supporting our community outreach.
