For our third program of the day, artist Yigal Ozeri shared his deep knowledge of photorealism's history and development with characteristic enthusiasm. His passion for the craft and decades of experience brought the movement to life for the audience. Joined by gallerist Ethan Cohen, Ozeri traced photorealism's evolution from its origins to its present-day expressions, offering insights into the technical and artistic developments that have shaped this precise art form.

Art Palm Beach is open until 6pm today. If you've been considering a particular piece during your visit, we encourage you to return for a final viewing or addition to your collection. If you haven't had the chance to visit the show, today offers your last opportunity to come and experience works from over 80 galleries and institutions from around the world.

Today's Highlight Exhibition

DIVERSEartPB HIGHLIGHT: Glasstress

Presented by: Boca Raton Museum of Art

Artist: Nathalie Djurberg & Hans Berg

Curator: Kathleen Goncharov

The Boca Raton Museum of Art presents a preview of its upcoming Glasstress exhibition (April 23-October 26, 2025). This installation merges Djurberg and Berg's stop-motion animation "Howling at the Moon" with glass sculptures created at the Glasstress Murano furnace. The video presents a wolf's negotiation with the Moon for a sow, while corresponding glass figures enhance the narrative. This project demonstrates the creative synthesis between contemporary artists and Murano's master glassmakers.
